

336 Final Project Documentation

User Story

This is Emily and Mo, they are co-heads of live music society at the University of Stirling. They want a website for the society which has many features like an image gallery, an interactive calendar and a room booking system. The website should have a login page for members as only members should be allowed to book a practice room. The calendar should show events of the society and you should be able to change the month to show the events for future and previous months. The website

Mockups

Events Page

The mockup shows a web browser window with the title 'SU Live Music: Calendar'. The navigation bar contains links: Home, About, Events, Pictures, and Room Booking. The main content area is titled 'Events' and features a table with columns for the days of the week: M, T, W, T, F, S, S. Below the table is a 'Footer' label.
